

Citizenship

An exemplary student citizen:

- demonstrates meaningful participation in their school and community.
- encourages others to become involved in school life.
- demonstrates care for the world outside of themselves.
- shows diligence and perseverance in their studies.
- demonstrates a positive attitude towards school.
- offers support beyond their friendship circle.
- serves as an advocate for other students.