

English

An exemplary English student:

- demonstrates mastery of language and literary skills.
- is intrinsically motivated and disciplined in their reading and writing.
- takes risks in their pursuit of learning and critical thinking.
- demonstrates citizenship by listening actively, by volunteering insight, and by asking questions to further explore and challenge.